Jules Kimball

March 17, 1969

From Richard Bernabei

NOTE TO FILES

A lawyer of Jules Rocco Kimball told Earl McRae, Toronto Star, that Kimball went with Dave Ferrie and Clay Shaw on two trips to Montreal in the summer of 1963. On one of the trips Shaw left Kimball and Ferrie and visited someone of importance in Montreal (could it have been Major L. M. Bloomfield?), and then returned to New Orleans with a Cuban. Kimball says the Cuban was to be used in the JFK killing.